

PHAR1220: Pharmacology I

Credit Hours: 2

Clock Hours: 45/0/0

This course provides study of the relationship of pharmaceutical products and normal human anatomy. Students will identify various drugs by their generic and trade names, identify drugs by their therapeutic classification, and describe various drug uses, dosages, routes of administration, and side effects.

Co-Requisites:

PHAR1120